

May 14
11.00 - 13.00
Room 16

Topic: Adaptation in Cities

Blue Ap LIFE+ project: Urban Adaptation Plan in Bologna (Italy) - talking to other parts in Europe

Final Programme

Chair: Sergio Castellari (INGV, CMCC) at the present Seconded National Expert at European Environment Agency (EEA)

Time	Programme
11:00 – 11:15	Raffaella Gueze, Sustainability unit at the City of Bologna (Italy) “The BLUE AP project: An Adaptation Plan for the City of Bologna”
11:15 – 11:20	Q&A
11:20 – 11:35	Lorenzo Bono, Ambiente Italia (Italy) “Has Blue Ap delivered a realistic Action Plan for Bologna?”
11:35 – 11:40	Q&A
11:40 – 11:55	Piero Pelizzaro, Senior Expert Climalia, Milan (Italy): “What experiences showcase real resilience?: The Blue Ap Bologna as resilient city project case study”
11:55 – 12:00	Q&A
12:00 – 12:15	Andrea Filpa, Faculty of Architecture, University of Roma Tre (Italy) “How a National Strategy for Climate Adaptation can stimulate a local plan?”
12:15 – 12:20	Q&A
12:20 – 12:35	Candide Howarth, PhD, Senior Research Fellow – Climate Action and Cultural Systems, Global Sustainability Institute, Anglia Ruskin University Cambridge (United Kingdom): “Adapting to weather and climate extremes in Europe: a toolkit for effective adaptation practices for heat waves and flooding”
12:35-12:40	Q&A
12:40 – 13:00	Panel discussion