

May 12
16:30 – 18:00
Meeting Room 5

Topic: Adaptation in cities

Case Copenhagen – Part 2:
The way we achieved everyday benefits from integrated blue-green climate adaptation
Part 2: The tools, documentation, financing and implementation

Method(s) used for workshop: Presentations, panel debate and participatory activities with the audients

Draft Programme

Chair: Lykke Leonardsen, Copenhagen Municipality

Time	Programme
16:30 – 16:35	Part 2: The tools, documentation, financing and implementation Lykke Leonardsen, Copenhagen Municipality/ Arne Bernt Hasling, COWI
16:35 – 16:55	2.1 How to find the most feasible and profitable adaptation solution for an entire capital city? Arne Bernt Hasling, COWI
16:55 – 17:05	2.2 Economy: Economic synergies and business cases Jan Rasmussen, Copenhagen Municipality
17:05 – 17:15	2.3 Economy: Financing climate adaptation Jes Clauson-Kaas, HOFOR Utility/ Jan Rasmussen, Copenhagen Municipality
17:15 – 17:30	2.4 Economy: Private stakeholders' economy in Adaptation Torben Weiss Garne, Forsikring & Pension, Danish Insurance Association (DIA)
17:30 – 18:00	2.5 Examples, larger multi-purpose projects. - Sankt Annæ Plads (upgrading, retention, transport) - Enghaveparken (upgrading, recreation, retention) Ole Bach, Sankt Annæ Selskabet, Flemming Rafn Thomsen, Tredje Natur Architects
18:00 – 18:30	2.6 Panel debate and participatory activities with the audients Lykke Leonardsen, Copenhagen Municipality/ Arne Bernt Hasling, COWI